Staicoft Ticket Wins in Pontoon

Village Elects Board President, 4 Others In Tuesday Ballot

Thomas Staicoft, incumbent president of the Pontoon Beach village board, and four other candidates on his ticket won election to four-year terms in Tuesday's village election.

Incumbent Edison Phelps, whose term as village clerk expires this year and who headed a full ticket of candidates opposing those backed by Staicoft, polled 266 votes to 188 for Phelps.

Others elected were Village Clerk Mrs. Nancy Rosales, for village clerk, and Roswell Bennett Jr., Anthony Jackson and Dr. Dean Rochester, as village board members.

Jackson is an incoming member trusted.

They defeated Floyd Ashoff, candidate for village clerk of Phelps' ticket, and Harold McBride, Gerald Warren and Clyde Bradshaw, who sought election as trustees.

461 Total Vote

A total of 461 votes was cast—a heavy weight for the single Pontoon Beach precinct of 200 of them cast in each ballot for the Civic Progress Party ticket.

The Civic Progress Party ticket headed by Staicoft, and 148 cast as straights for the Citizens Party ticket headed by Phelps. A total of 100 votes were cast for Phelps and two ballots were spoiled.

In the race for village clerk, Mrs. Rosales, a political newcomer, defeated Ashoff by a vote of 263 to 188.

Trustee candidates on the Progressive Party ticket, Dr. Rochester, Jackson and Bennett, polled 267, 262 and 247 votes, respectively, to win the three highest spots on the election ballot.

Candidates for the townships on the Citizens Party ticket, Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson, polled 201, 194 and 177, respectively.

Pontoon Beach has only one preexisting polling place located in the Long Lake fire department's community hall, and results of the election were completed shortly after 7:30 p.m., an hour and a half after the polls closed at 6 p.m.

Operations between two full tickets developed early in the campaign as the result of political differences between Staicoft and Phelps. Both were elected as Staicoft as board president and Phelps as vice-president when the village of Pontoon Beach was established four years ago.

A regular meeting of the village board is scheduled for next Thursday evening at the Long Lake fire department recreation hall.

City Hall Candidates In Madison, Venice Win

Organizations Make Clean Sweep of Ten Aldermanic Posts

Candidates for Madison and Venice aldermanic posts with no opposition won election in all instances in Tuesday's balloting, defeating their opponents—wherever opposition was offered—with substantial pluralities.

Venice voters elected four aldermen, each a regular four-year term, and one alderman to a two-year unexpired term. Madison elected five four-year aldermen, one each for the city's five wards.

At Madison, the winners were:

Emil Ulanek, incumbent First Ward alderman, 312 to 71 for his only opponent, Everett Nasalas.

Donald L. Broyles, polling 233 votes in the Second Ward, defeated his only opponent.

Fourth Ward, incumbent H. Haynes, defeated Charles Rockett, who received 54 votes.

Opposed in 2 Wards

The Venice city hall organization had opposition in two of the four wards, but in the Fourth Nearest approach to a close race was in the Fourth Ward where Oscar King, incumbent, was reelected by a plurality of only 40 votes, according to unofficial returns.

Lloyd H. Patterson polled 286 votes in the First Ward to defeat John Mangiacarri, with a vote of 160; George A. Mangiacarri, 272 votes in Ward Two, and Donald B. Battish, 271.

For the full four-year term of Ward Three, without opposition: John Ervin, 271 votes in Ward Three for the two-year unexpired term; Oscar King, incumbent, 249 for his opponent, Tyrone Echols.

The winners in all cases were set in which a firm must comply

MORE ABOUT Over Protests

pands the one-way system to other streets.

New System

The new one-way system will be —

Benton street northbound from 26th to 27th.

Cleveland blvd. southbound from 27th to 20th.

Edison a venue northbound from 18th to 27th.

Washington avenue northbound from 20th to Nameoki road.

Washington avenue southbound from 22nd to 20th.

The changes from the present system would be the extension from 24th to 27th street of the one-way, limited, alternate State street and low street to the system and reversing the direction of Washington avenue between 20th and 22nd streets.

The recommendation by the traffic engineering department by the council last year had stood up to court action by the two Third Ward aldermen and a group of Third Ward residents — Benton northbound from 27th to 20th; Cleveland northbound from 20th to 27th; Edison avenue northbound from 18th to 27th and Grant avenue southbound from 27th to 18th.

The reasoning for reversal of several streets was to provide more southbound routes into the downtown business district. Under his plan, Delmar avenue and State street would remain two-way with limited parking.

Comments on Letter

In a letter to the council, Chairman Arnette said the Citizen Traffic Commission had met with the aldermen who proposed the one-way system and concluded: "This piecemeal method of creating one-way streets in our system leads us to believe there was no study given to this proposed plan by anyone with expert knowledge in the field of traffic."

"Knowing that the one-way system plan had a chance of being adopted, we met with one of the traffic engineers who had designed the original plan. We asked if there was any possible way that the original plan could be changed and still give us a safe and uncongested flow of traffic."

"After several hours, we came up with new problems of a more serious nature and it was conceded that the original plan was the best."

"The members of this commission have no personal interest in this controversial issue other than wanting for the community what is best for the community. We believe that the issue of who is right should enter into this matter, but we should concern ourselves with what is right and believe we should start with a sound basic plan and add to it in the future as the need arises."

Seek Engineered Plan

The commission asked the matter to reconsider the matter and adopt the "experimenter plan."

Another letter was received from the Downtown Shopping Center Association, headed by Homer Huber, who said the city's new system would not solve traffic problems unless it is backed by the council and the advice of the traffic expert.

Bartosik, who submitted the system as adopted, said it was based on the second plan presented to him by the engineer. "He didn't say the second plan wouldn't work. I felt it boiled down to 'you go my way or no other solution,' but the engineer gave us this alternate plan. If we override the plan, my veto," he said.

In the debate, Sternberg asked that all political motives be dropped from the discussion. "If we uphold the veto, it will give us more time to review the program and come up with one that will fit the city's needs. This one proposed already is in the process of being changed," Sternberg noted.

"Who's going to recommend the changes?" Alderman Fry asked. "I will not wait until after someone is killed!"

Johnson repeated that he felt the Iowa-Nameoki road problem could be corrected, and Bartosik added that he was unable to see any hazards being created.

In the rollcall, those voting to override the veto were Aldermen Nunn, Whitmer, Biddle, Bartosik, Johnson, Bob Dallas, Moesler, Parmenter, Robertson, Poppe and Green. Voting to uphold the veto were Rutledge, Sternberg, Thompson and Fry.

Bellcoff Elected To 15th Term as School President

John Bellcoff was elected to his 15th consecutive year as president of the Madison board of education at a reorganization meeting Tuesday night. He was re-elected to a three-year term as a board member earlier this month.

Elected secretary was William Schreiber, who succeeds Chester McManamy as the president.

Other members of the board's organizational setup were John G. Gitchoff as school attorney, Ray Kozielak as treasurer and Raymond Drachig as superintendent of schools.

Among other personnel actions, the board employed Mrs. Alice Norsworthy of Venice as a fifth grade teacher at Dunbar school beginning in the fall. She formerly taught at Blair school before resigning.

Summer Program

Stanley Schreiber was appointed to direct a summer recreation program to be financed by the county Office of Economic Opportunity.

A 12-week program for all boys and girls will operate from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. daily, and will be utilized through the Youth Opportunity program, also financed by the OEO.

The board approved continuation of six classes in the summer session for preschool children at Blair school, and plans are being made to expand the program by three more classrooms this summer at Harris school if federal funds are available.

The overall program, to last six weeks, would utilize six teachers and six teacher aides at no expense to the school district, the superintendent said.

Drachig noted that "if boys or girls are great, buy this summer, they are out-of-town."

Salary Negotiations

The superintendent reported that salary negotiations with teachers for the next school year are under way and that the Madison Federation of Teachers has accepted a tentative offer. He said a firm offer cannot be made pending the outcome of state legislation.

In a general discussion of summer building improvement plans, he recommended that the Madison junior high school is not to be renovated this year, budgeted funds be used for improvements at other schools.

It was announced that the Madison school board will be unable to participate in the Shriners' parade May 6 as it will be participating in a contest the same day in Salem.

Gas Contract

The Illinois Power Co. asked the board to sign a gas contract with the St. Louis Board of Education to assure that a sufficient supply will be available during the next heating season.

Installation of an additional transmission line of $300 plus installation costs at Madison high school to provide efficient operation of the school's clock and program systems in new additions was approved.

The board approved March estimates of $61,145 plus withholdings of $27,069; lunch salaries of $2409, plus withholding of $2409; and March bills of $514 from the educational fund; $4832 from the maintenance fund; $3,564 from the pension fund; $8572 from the lunch fund.

Madison CD Unit to Stage Test Exercise May 20th

Madison County Civil Defense Director Theodore Todoroff discussed tornado warnings and emergency services to be provided by CD units in event of such disaster, which addressed members of the Madison civil defense organization at their monthly meeting Monday evening.

The Madison CD unit also announced plans for an extensive test exercise to be held Saturday, May 20, in Madison.

An alert system that includes six mobile and two walkie-talkie units which may be utilized with a possible disaster was placed in operation by the Madison civil defense group this week, it was announced. To further alert the public to the civil defense program, officials decided to have their emergency vehicles in the May 6 Shriners' Day parade.

Harry Johnson, Madison CD director, reported the May 20 tests will be conducted with speed, disaster exercises will include participation by units of the Civil Air Patrol, Boy Scouts, auxiliary police and the highly-trained Madison first aid unit. Two-way radio equipment will be used.

Additional plans for the drill will be discussed at the group's next meeting, which is set to replace Harold Landolt of Alhambra, who has held the chairmanship for the past four years. Reorganization of the county board will take place at 9:30 a.m. May 12.

John Johnson is requested to replace Harold Landolt of Alhambra next Monday as county board chairman. Landolt, a Republican resides in Alhambra.

"A closer watch over the operation of some of the county offices would have prevented some of the discrepancies that have caused our county to suffer undue embarrassment and publicity."

"Close harmony between the chairman and the Board of Supervisors is an absolute necessity. At the same time, closer scrutiny of committees would lend tremendous toward better county government for Madison county."

SPACE is urging county board members to elect a chairman who would recommend these needed improvements, so that you as individual board members would be able to voice your opinions freely and act on issues according to your conscience and the benefits derived by the citizens. We feel that Harry Briggs will offer you the opportunity to truly represent all of the people of Madison county."

McGee Group Backing Briggs Against Landolt

Sound Political Action through Citizens Education (SPACE), an independent Madison county political action group headed yesterday backed Nameoki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs for chairman of the Madison County Board of Supervisors.

John McGee, president of the group, told reporters yesterday that an operations center will be located in the Madison high school building.

Additional plans for the drill will be discussed at the group's next meeting, which is set to replace Harold Landolt of Alhambra, who has held the chairmanship for the past four years. Reorganization of the county board will take place at 9:30 a.m. May 12.

In his letter Briggs stated, "As a candidate for chairman of the board of supervisors, it is felt that a closer relationship should exist between members and the board chairman, especially those members for chairman to do a good job without knowing the thoughts and ideas of the various board members on the numerous facets of county government.

Plans for Meetings

"A progressive board chairman should meet with the chairman of all committees before board meetings. This will create a tightly-knit working nucleus for all county programs. It will also prevent irrelevant matters from consuming valuable time during board meetings."

Briggs' letter continued, "A board chairman should have working with him at all times a supervisor's citizens committee to review all county programs. In this way, the county can assure itself that a capable and efficient group is studying and working out solutions to numerous problems.

"It is also felt that Madison county can double its population in the next ten years if a program of growth and industrial development is initiated. Such a program would bring new industry and more people into Madison county."

Voter approval of a special tax for mental health purposes will permit the Madison County Mental Health District to perform services not heretofore possible. Terry Koenig, director of the Tri-City Center of the county district, told a meeting of the Granite City Rotary Club Tuesday.

Speaking before the regular Rotary luncheon meeting in the YMCA, Staten said tax funds will permit initiation of new and expanded programs, more counseling work and closer association with individual cases.

The Mental Health District will spend around $107,000 to maintain an expanded service. Staten told approximately 50 Rotarians attending the meeting.

Arthur Koepfer, first vice-president of the club, presided at the meeting, for which Eugene Fred Swart, past president of the Granite City Rotary Club, was a guest at the meeting as a "make-up" attendant to keep from spoiling his record of perfect attendance since 1927. Lt. Col. David Fox of the Granite City Army Depot also was a guest.

The club's executive board will meet next Wednesday at the Chain of Rocks Motel. It was announced the meeting will be at 4:45 p.m. Tuesday.

Venice Tax Least Affected by Rate Limit Proposals

A group of bills affecting local tax rate limits, passed by the Illinois Senate in March, has been favorably reported by the House Revenue Committee and is awaiting House action.

A study of the legislation indicates that the city of Venice, with a present total rate of $1,032 per $100 assessed valuation, would be the least affected. Senate Bill 286, if it could increase its present garage rate by 16 cents, from 8.94 cents to 10 cents.

Present Venice rates for general purpose (G3.3 cents), streets (10.17 cents), police (15 cents) and fire (5.5 cents) exceed the limits in the bills currently being considered at Springfield, but each bill authorizes existing higher rates to be continued.

Two-Step General Rate

The city of Madison, with a current total rate of $1,036 per $100 assessed valuation, would have the greatest rate increases to 25 cents but could jump no more than half the difference (half of 10 cents, or .56 cents) in any one year under Senate Bill 286.

Other potential Madison rate changes are: public benefits fund (court judgments), 1.71 cents to five cents (Bill 271), a rise of 3.29 cents; police, present rates of 10 cents to 10 cents (Bill 272), a gain of 2.5 cents. Present higher-than-authorized rates for streets (10.06 cents) and for playgrounds and recreation (7.67 cents) are also affected.

In the case of Granite City, with a 63.9-cent rate total at present, the general rate could go from 14.2 cents to 16.6 cents and then 20 cents. Garage rates may be increased from 8.25 cents to 10 cents. The existing fire protection rate (16 cents) could continue.

Boosts Not Mandatory

The rate changes are not mandatory, nor would they be set directly. The state allows which then are applied to total assessment to determine rates; rates are adjusted annually based on changes in preparing tax bills.

Each of the rate revision bills specifies that all the new limits given in the legislation "may be increased or decreased by referendum."

Each sets the new limit at a

THREE NEW MEMBERS of the Madison city council, elected in Tuesday's city election, were seated by the council Tuesday night, a few hours after the polls closed. New Madison aldermen include Donald L. Broyles, Ward Two; Stanley Krakowiecki, Ward Three, and Mike Sikora, Ward Four. Incumbents Emil Ulanski of the First Ward and John H. Haynes of the Fifth Ward were re-elected.

The Granite City Jaycettes held a wig show Tuesday evening in the Jaycee hall. James Hansen, a wig consultant from a St. Louis wig salon, appeared before the group of about 60 persons. He explained that wigs cost a considerable amount of money to learn and how to present the demonstration to acquaint people with the conveniences of owning hair goods.

The proceeds from the event will go toward sponsoring a child at the Easter Seals camp this summer and purchasing equipment for the Tiny Tim Nursery School for Retarded Children in Granite City. The Jaycettes presented Hansen with a gift in appreciation of his services.

Mrs. Mary Watkins served as chairman for the show.

MRS. LOIS WEEKS
129 E. Chain of Rocks Road
WE-1493

Cub Scouts of Pack 141 invited their parents to come on Saturday, April 22, to Marquette State Park at Grafton. The cubs went on hikes and the rest of the day was spent playing games.

Those who took part were David and Diane Horrocks, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Buchen, Kenneth Clark, Mark Davis, David and Daryl Haldean, Daniel Revard, Glen Bonds, Ronne Bonds, George Vierling, Lonnie Luettke and Guy Gittert and members of the cub's families.

A point noted by some was that

AFL-CIO Council Endorses 'Yes' Vote on GC Sewers

A "Yes" vote in the May 6 proposal being submitted to sewer election by union members and other citizens was endorsed last night in a vote at the April meeting of the Tri-City Trades Council. The group brought in $10,000 worth of 18 cents of each dollar's worth of sewer installations, with the U.S. paying 50 cents and business and industry providing 32 cents.

The "Better Sewers Bargain Day" program was explained by Horace Calvo, bond attorney.

In the discussion there was no question but that sewer improvements—$8 million in bonds and $6 million from federal, state and other sources, it was noted—will involve taxation. However, brochures distributed to the group brought in $10,000 worth of 18 cents of each dollar's worth of sewer installations, with the U.S. paying 50 cents and business and industry providing 32 cents.

Also reviewed was the proposed matching funds.

The overall $14 million program involves $8 million in bonds and $6 million from federal, state and other sources, it was noted.

The bond ordinance enacted by the city council guarantees that the county will provide the money when funds become available, Calvo said. The 50-50 matching funds do not total exactly half.

Granite City sewer needs, it was estimated, are $10 million.

$10 Loan Repaid— 34 Years Later

It took 34 years, but Maurice Schermser, a local businessman, is $10 richer this week thanks to the honesty and good memory of a former local resident.

Recalling that he had borrowed $10 to buy groceries in 1933, a man who now lives in another state handed the $10 to Schermser's son, Leo, at the Schermser Brothers' Market in Madison Monday. The man said he was in this area to visit a daughter.

Leo Schermser relayed the money to his uncle, who is not associated with the grocery store but until 1948 operated a grocery with his brother, Pete, in Granite City.

Leo Schermser was honored on his birthday, and placards were distributed to publicize the rotary club annual benefit set for gasboil and waffle fry set for 11:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, April 30, at the Madison recreation center.

Rev. John Beatty of the East St. Louis "inner city" Methodist parish explained the plan with young and vocational groups at yesterday's Madison Rotary luncheon. Rev. Goodloe Love was program chairman.

Rev. Beatty, who seeks to meet residents' spiritual and other needs without restriction to any specific church building, stressed the importance of churches and businesses accepting general responsibility for the welfare of the entire community.

Council Members Challenge Mayor's Adjourned Meetings

Granite City council members served notice on Mayor Peterman Tuesday night that they would not necessarily go along with any more double-header sessions. Thirteen of the aldermen signed up for the carry-over meeting.

While all 16 were present Monday night, the canvas of the April 4 election and a long list of letters and ordinances on their meeting past the 11 o'clock curfew and the mayor called for the adjourned meeting Tuesday night.

A wide variety of miscellaneous business was conducted during the double session, with minor duplication of discussions.

Alderman Boyd, who was present Monday but absent Tuesday, advised the council Tuesday night by letter that it was the desire of the mayor that he made the decision as to when the carry-over session would be held. He quoted from the city code and submitted a copy of that section.

The aldermen expressed opinion that perhaps the meetings on Monday night could be extended (with two-thirds vote approval) beyond the 11 o'clock curfew rather than adjourn the meeting at 11 to return the next night.

Many council members thought there was a city rule to return the next night if all business was not completed before curfew.

Most of Tuesday night's meeting was devoted to the Street committee.

Authorization was given for Street Supt. Warden to start the annual sidewalk repair program on May 1, and it was decided the city should meet with state highway officials to determine the amount of sidewalk to be replaced along Nampaik road near Missouri Avenue.

Council members authorized replacement where necessary, even if it would increase the total cost of the project. Several aldermen pointed out that the state was leaving several sections of sidewalk.

Crossing Repairs
Alderman Sternberg, Street chairman, said Norfolk & Western Railroad was planning to repair all crossings with a prefabricated material. "It will be necessary to close the crossings for a period of time since the replacement sections will not permit closing just half the crossing to permit a flow of vehicular traffic," Sternberg said. He added that the railroad will notify the city of the times the crossings are to be closed.

Complaints were made that the central air system at the Nampaik shopping center had failed to get a city permit. Mayor Partney said the operator had been notified, and that the state already has advised the city that Missouri Avenue is too narrow with parking on both sides to permit a center stripe.

The state highway department is to be asked to repaint historic stripes along Madison Avenue. The original motion was to include Missouri Avenue, which that was voted down since the state already has advised the city that Missouri Avenue is too narrow with parking on both sides to permit a center stripe.

Further study is to be given a drainage problem along Edgewood Drive. An easement for drainage does not provide adequate

Chicken Goes Delectably Oriental

Picture-perfect and party-perfect describes Sweet-Sour Chicken, a delectable dish whispering a hint of Oriental flavor.

Sweet-Sour chicken pieces in a sauce of pineapple preserves or orange marmalade (try one, then vary the next dish simply by using the other) and vinegar. The Cantonese touch, a soy sauce-cornstarch thickener, adds to the flavor.

When the sauce is clear and thickened to your liking, the glazed, Sweet-Sour Chicken is ready to be served atop well seasoned rice.

Sweet-Sour

1 clove garlic, minced
1 (3-pound) frying chicken,

New State Constitution Sought to Make Government More Effective

To the Editor:

The Constitution Study Commission, in its report recently submitted to the Governor and the General Assembly, recommends:

1. That the 75th Illinois General Assembly call a ballot for November 1968 the question of constitutional revision.

2. That if a resolution is adopted there be no constitutional amendments on the same ballot.

3. That the Constitution Study Commission be continued with an appropriation sufficient to support continued study and the preparation of background material for delegates to a convention.

The commission's study revealed the need for many changes in the 1870 Constitution, the commission chairman, the late Rep. Marjorie Peabody, said.

"The changes are so extensive, occur in so many articles, and require so much debate and discussion that the commission concluded a convention offers the best method of revising the Constitution."

In order to give some idea of the depth of interest in constitutional changes and the variety of suggestions for changes, the commission has included as part of its report a brief history of the constitution, executive, suffrage, revenue and amendment articles and of the problems of constitutional provisions for local government," Rep. Peabody said.

"The suggestions are listed without recommendations for specific changes because the commission believes a convention should be called to consider the wide range of possibilities for improvement of the Illinois Constitution of 1870."

The report expresses concern over the problems of creating a legislative and executive structure capable of effective participation and leadership in the state-local-federal relationship. It raises in question form the subjects discussed by the commission.

For example, the report lists the following subjective elements of a new legislative article: term limits, office apportionment methods, length of the legislative session, cumulative voting, operation of the veto power, appropriation procedures, the unicameral via bicameral structure,

ENJOY PRESS-RECORD DURING ARIZONA STAY

To the Editor:

In January of this year I left my home in Granite City to come to Phoenix, Ariz., to improve my health, as I had heard that this city, known as "The Valley of the Sun" would be ideal.

The climate here is mild most of the time and the humidity very low, and in my case I have found it to be very good. I have improved quite a lot since I have been here.

The weather here is great. It has been like spring all the time I have been here. All around the pretty green lawns and different kinds of pretty flowers are in bloom, and right now the orange and grapefruit trees are in full bloom. The fruit from the blossoms is really wonderful to smell.

At the capitol today I was very much interested in a big flowering tree. I asked a legislative guard staff person what the name of the tree was. He said it was an orchid tree and it blooms twice a year—the flowers big, pink, orchid-like and beautiful.

With all the beauty I see around me I am glad I am not dreaming.

The state flower is the blossom of the Saguaro Cactus. It is a giant cactus, the largest in the United States. It grows to be 50 feet tall and lives to an age of 100 years. The flowers are white, waxy like and beautiful.

The state bird is the Cactus Wren, which nests in the cactus plants. This bird is of a woody brown color with speckled breast. He builds several nests on one tree. The birds are fierce and do not fear enemies. I understand they are nesting now.

I was interested to know the state tree of Arizona is the Palo Verde. The Spanish word for Palo Verde is "green stick." The tree blooms in April or May, depending on the year. It is a shimmering blaze of yellow gold.

There are two native species of Palo Verde cecidium in Arizona, FRANK MILLER

Assessment Yardstick Gives Hope of Future Local Levee Board Majority

Under existing legislation, State Rep. Harris has noted, the Quad-Cities are assured of retaining the five East Side Levee & Sanitary District trustee positions, the number held at present. A study of assessed valuation trends now indicates it may be longer before this community gains a majority size.

The commission said in its report that it favors the constitutional convention method of revision because a piecemeal amendment has not worked and because a convention presents a better opportunity of stimulating public discussion of the issue, permits the concentrated work of an elected delegate body unhampered by the demands of regular legislative sessions, provides a more measured depth and quality, reflects the best contemporary thinking, reconciles conflicting opinions, and speeds up the constitutional revision process.

The strength of self-government depends on the ability of the states to meet responsibilities to the people and to take full advantage of opportunities to serve the people.

"The need for a basic charter—this—not for a basic charter—that permits state government to deal effectively with current and future responsibilities is paramount."

Three resolutions to call a constitutional convention are now before the Illinois Assembly. If passed, the electorate would decide in November 1968 whether to hold a convention. Delegates would be elected and the convention called under rules to be adopted by the 1969 General Assembly.

The Constitution Study Commission was created by passage of House Bill 1911, by the Seventy-Fourth General Assembly, signed by Gov. Otto Kerner Aug. 17, 1966. It is composed of 18 members named equally from two major parties.

Needless Additional Delay in Decision on Medical College

Study is often a necessary prelude to legislation, just as thought should precede action, but it seems unfortunate that the state medical college proposal is to be studied for another two years, with another $65,000 to $100,000 expended.

A bill passed by the General Assembly and forwarded to the governor would schedule further deliberations by the Illinois Board of Higher Education, with its report not due until May 1, 1969.

We regard Southern Illinois University's Southwestern Illinois as the ideal site for a medical school due to the acute need for physicians in this region and due to the availability of varied metropolitan area accident-illness cases and some of the nation's leading medical-surgical educators.

But regardless of which location is chosen, the advisability of establishing downstate area medical training was recognized long ago. We doubt that prolongation of the study will make the eventual site decision any easier, and delay for an additional two years will needlessly handicap Illinois in remedying the doctor shortage.

Improve Campaign Fund Legislation

Taxpayer financing of presidential election campaigns had many potential advantages, but the Senate vote to repeal it will notadden many people. Even before the proposal went into effect, many may have been dissatisfied.

Under the 1966 law and Republican parties would share up to $60 million equally for the 1968 presidential campaign, with individuals and families contributing relatively painlessly by checking a space on their income tax return a year from now. This theoretically would return a year from now. This theoretically would make presidential nominees less beholden to the persons supplying big sums for their campaign coffers.

But there would be no controls on how the funds could be spent, raising the prospect of abuses of ethics on a grand scale. And candidates willing to accept funds with strings attached would still have an edge on their rivals, utilizing both these questionable funds and half of the money donated by tax payers.

The current law should be improved by amendment or, if repealed, should be revised and resubmitted along with long-needed effective curbs on excessive election spending.

Not What You Do But the Way That You Do It

Are you more creative as composers? This was the question to be answered this month as U. S. Senate judiciary subcommittee held hearings on whether singers and musicians should collect fees when their recordings are broadcast, as do songwriters already.

To accentuate the positive viewpoint, Julie London, who once made even cigarette pack flip-top sound romantic, asked you believe?

The Mickey Mouse Club theme?

Subsequent judges to the contrary, the senators did not immediately abandon their duties to join the Mouseketeers. But the temptation to do so may have been strong, for most indicated they believe a good case can be made that performers, as do songwriters, already.

If not fully convinced, the subcommittee may wish to call Miss London next to try her hand at vocalizing the telephone directory. Or, better still, perhaps Senator Dirksen might agree to give a sample of his recorded rendition of "Gallant Men."

Key to Better Heart Drugs Found

(American Chemical Society)

A new chemical twist to an old heart remedy has opened the door to a variety of potentially useful drugs.

Using the simpler model of digitoxin, a drug long used to treat heart failure, has also verified a theory of how the heart beat and also strengthens the force of contraction of the heart muscle.

Dr. Manfred E. Wolff, professor of chemistry at the National Research Center for Cancer, said the new findings may be organized the supply, service and distribution of natural or artificial gas on a co-operative basis.

He found that the swine heart, failing heart, has also verified a theory of how the heart beat and also strengthens the force of contraction of the heart muscle.

U. S. Entered War Half Century Ago

(Madison Barracks 34, Veteran of World War I of the U. S. A.)

Just 50 years ago, April 19, the U. S. declared war on the imperial German government after months of provocation and unrestricted submarine warfare.

It marked a turning point in our country's history which saw our "small country" position in the world affairs forever changed, with the entry of America's "age of innocence."

The assumption of responsibility for leadership and initiative among our young American sons, containing statements marked America's coming of age in the affairs of mankind.

It was a cruel, bloody and battle-torn war, but it was also a lesson in its true significance by the vast global conflicts against aggression and tyranny which followed and are continuing.

Courageous Example
America should, on this golden anniversary of that First World War, pause and honor the shining memory of those whose honor and courage have been the inspiration and standard for American fighting men ever since.

They are fortunate in at least one unique way—they have seen one, two and now three generations defending freedom with their lives.

John J. Pershing, our commander-in-chief, absolutely refused to permit Americans to be used as colonial levies to fight in France.

Secure, too, in the knowledge that no battle can ever replace the memory of their "war to make the world safe for democracy."

They were the first. The world today is continuing the task they began 50 years ago.

50 YEARS AGO

APRIL 20, 1917

According to a decision handed down by the Supreme Court at Springfield this week, municipalities have no power to tax automobiles.

Police who raid gambling dens are without authority to tax money that is won, the Supreme Court held this week.

The case at issue was Teaney and Becker against Webb, appealed at St. Clair county.

The grand jury has asked that the Madison County Board of Supervisors provide a suitable United States flag to wave over the county farm.

25 YEARS AGO

This is the only public building in Edwardsville which does not boast the American flag.

It was recommended, as usual, that no American prisoners, young boys, be placed in separate compartments to avoid their meeting hardened criminals.

Members of the Picciola club, an organization of local young ladies active in charity work, have donated $25 for books for the Granite City public library.

Plans were made for a dinner and theatre party in St. Louis May 29 to celebrate the 25th anniversary, and for the next regular meeting May 7 in the home of Mrs. Roswell Kleinschmidt, 2249 Washington Avenue.

Mrs. Henry Reimers was hostess to her pinches and friends.

All the members attended and paid dues to the hostess, Mrs. Charles Theis, and Mrs. James Cary. The club will meet again in three weeks with Mrs. Theis on Cleveland Blvd.

Mrs. J. F. Darner, assisted by Mrs. Paul Pender, entertained the Mothercraft club of Niedringhaus Memorial Church in the home of Mrs. Darner, 2141 Cleveland Blvd.

Mrs. Ralph Miller was the leader and Mrs. Calvin Koone read a paper on "The Glowing Tree." Special music was furnished by Mrs. Earl Miller, who sang "Just For Today," playing her own accompaniment.

St. Louis Symphony To be Featured in Campus Program

Works of nine composers from five states have been selected to be read at a five-day symposium to be held at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern May 2-6, when the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra will be in residence at the Southwestern campus.

According to Prof John Kenndy, director of the arts faculty, chairman of the symposium committee, "a large number of interesting scores from Illinois and five neighboring states were submitted." Screening of the scores, Kennedy said, was done by an SIU faculty committee and Ezeazar De Carvalho, conductor of the St. Louis Symphony.

The composers whose works are being read are: Kelly, the University of Illinois' "Concerto for Violin, Cello and Orchestra"; David M. Hollister, Iowa City, Iowa, "Concertino for Strings"; Robert Lombardo, Chicago, "Overture for Band"; George Miller, SIU-SW, "Movement for Orchestra"; Ramon Zupko, Joliet, "Amatrici" (for strings); Ronald Arnatt, Webster Groves, Mo., "Suite for 11" and Springer, Edwin L., Hopkins, Iowa City, "Assemblyline" (for chamber orchestra); Robert Steele Moore, Coralville, Iowa, "Homomorphisms"; and Morris Knight, Ball State University, Muncie, Ind., "A Summer Symphony."

Five of the nine entries will be played by the St. Louis Symphony at a concert held May 5.

The five-day appearance of the St. Louis Symphony on the Southwestern campus has been made possible through a $20,000 grant from the Ford Foundation, and is one of the Fine Arts Festival events scheduled in connection with the university's year-long dedication of its new campus.

"There isn't a better intermediate size car sold in the United States than the 1967 Rebel" says Tom McCahill, automobile expert for Mechanix Illustrated.

Tom McCahill evaluates the automobile industry for Mechanix Illustrated. Recently, he took out an SST hardtop equipped with a 343 cu. in. Typhoon V-8 engine and a four-speed transmission. How did our Excitement Machine perform?

"The maneuverability and performance, it would top most of the newer specialty cars. There's absolutely no plowing and little body roll. The whole feel of the car, when going over rut or across dirt roads, is excellent."

What about comfort? "It's extremely comfortable and relaxing. In straight-line driving the SST is as comfortable as the Jell-O spring suspension."

How about the Rebel's new four-link rear suspension?

"Of all the new sporty-type cars, as they come from the showroom, Rebel has by far the best and safest suspension of the whole kit and caboodle."

"And the looks?" "As sharp in appearance as a thousand-dollar bill. And from a cost angle, Rebel's not overpriced."

This is your kind of excitement, created by American Motors. A company that has created an entire line of six-passenger Excitement Machines that give you more excitement for the money.

Council Debates,
Then Oks Side Line
Variation Request

Three side property line variations, approved by the city's Zoning Board of Appeals were confirmed Monday night by Granite City council members despite a protest over one variation based on complaints to an alderman by adjacent property owners.

Alderman Fry said the neighbors had not been advised of the variation request in advance of the hearing by the appeals board. In the case of Roger Kieffer, 2423 Terminal avenue, who plans to erect a 13½x46½-foot, three-room addition with a five-foot side line.

Fry asked that approval of the board's action on Kieffer's request be delayed a week to permit a re-hear and that in the future the board be required to advise the neighbors in the ward involved in such hearings.

However, Kieffer, who was in the audience, was permitted to speak and said he had that morning submitted a detailed plan in compliance with the appeal board's requirement, and Alderman Parmley called for confirmation of the appeal board's approval. Only Fry and Rutledge opposed the motion.

Other Variations
Also approved were the variations granted James Borrell, 224 Joy Avenue, a side line variation for an unattached garage, and William Fries, 3023 Myrtle avenue, for a side line variation for a carport roof.

Referred to the council's planning committee and the City Plan Commission was the request for a special use permit by East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. to erect a 2,000,000-gallon water storage tank on a 1.66-acre tract immediately west of Tri Mor Bowl.

Alderman Johnson, who heads the Fire & Police Committee, said in remarks negotiations with the water company, said the council should not be in any way held to grant the special use permit.

The water company presently has an option on the property but is not planning to start construction, pending approval, for about a year.

Amendments Proposed For GC Heating Code

Amendments to the city heating code to lower the penalty for violation and to include central air-conditioning were voted on first reading Monday night by Granite City council members.

City Atty. Allen explained the existing code, adopted in 1963, sets fines for violations at $500 to $1,000 which are in excess of state fine limitations. The amendment sets the amounts at $200 to $300.

Mayor Partney, who is in the heating contract business, said the code was patterned after the model code adopted in East St. Louis, and that it is necessary for the city to have such a code to meet federal heating standards.

Alderman Rutledge also noted, after Nunn suggested the city drop the code entirely, that it provides for inspection of furnace installations preceding the St. 1 permit. His repairs over $100 was criticized by Alderman Basarich.

Nunn said he learned the city had lost a bid against a contractor involving the code and an out-of-town contractor. He added that he wondered if the code wasn't being used to keep certain contractors from operating in Granite City.

Partney denied by Mayor Partney, who re-emphasized it was based on a model code.

Nemeth, Woods Cited by Legion at Council Meet

Detective Sgt. Joseph Nemeth and Patrolman Richard Woods were honored and presented with citations by Tri-City American Legion Post 113 before the Granite City council at its meeting Monday night.

Woods was "credited with saving the life of Tobi Gene Jonassen, age three, who nearly drowned in San Antonio, Texas, over the Christmas holidays. Tobi, while swimming her tricycle, slipped over the edge and into a private swimming pool. She had gone down three times when Officer Woods jumped into the pool and rescued her."

Patrolman Woods was vacationing at the time of the rescue, and it was noted that no one here knew of his heroic action until sometime later when Police Chief Veizer received a letter from the little girl's family.

Area Employment Down in March; Expect Increase

Employment in 62 reporting manufacturing firms and businesses in the Quad-City area during March totaled 39,361, down from 40,000 in employment of March 1966, according to a report by Malcolm A. Thompson, manager of the Granite City office of the Illinois State Employment Service.

The number of workers employed during March also was a decrease of 537 below the 19,798 reported employed two months ago. Employment rolls in these firms, however, are expected to increase to 18,955, up 659 over the March total, by the end of next month.

Twelve firms engaged in manufacture of durable goods accounted for 12,356 of the workers employed last month, while 12 manufacturers of nondurable goods employed 13,032, and 38 non-manufacturing firms employed 4,637.

Down by 474 Most manufacturing employment decreased from January to March was shown in the 12 firms manufacturing durable goods. The 13,366 persons employed in these industries in March was 474 less than employed in the same industries in January, and 773 less than employed in the same firms in March, 1966.

In manufacturing firms producing non-durable goods, only slight change in total employment was shown in the past year. Last month's employment of 13,032 is only 19 less than the 13,222 on the employment rolls in January and is only six less than the 13,093 reported in the same plants in March 1966.

The report anticipates a sharp increase in the durable goods plants, however, with total employment of 12,937 by the end of May. Last month's employment in the non-durable goods classification which is expected to have 1317 workers by the end of May.

Report Slight Change
The 38 non-manufacturing firms also has shown a slight fluctuation in employment records and expects little change by next month. Employment in these 38 firms totaled 4,637 in March compared to 4,656 in January, 1966, in March a year ago. Total employment of 4,630 is expected by the end of next month.

Of the 4,637 employees in the nondurable goods plants during March, 875 were reported in production of food and kindred products, the non-manufacturing category, 796 were in communications, electrical, gas and sanitation services and 644 in retail trade.

In addition the report showed a total of 1941 employees in three categories of government service during March. These included 1750 in federal service, 11 in state service and 180 in local government units.

Parking Ban Between Sidewalk and Curb Proposed for GC

Ordinances are to be prepared of the exit driveway of Illinois Power Co. in the 2100 block of Adams street in Granite City including a provision to prohibit parking between sidewalks and curbs, submitted by Alderman Johnson. Johnson recommended that rights turns be permitted after a stop for a red traffic light.

State approval may be sought for the installation of a sidewalk on the north side of Leonard avenue. It has been noted there are commercial areas where parking between sidewalks and curbs may be necessary.

The commission also recommends compliance with the model traffic code that requires drivers entering an intersection or a marked crosswalk unless there is sufficient space on the other side to accommodate the vehicle so as not to obstruct pedestrians or other vehicles, notwithstanding any traffic control indication to proceed.

It has been noted that at busy intersections, vehicles in lines of traffic often block cross traffic.

No-Parking ones

The commission also recommends a state highway department of an additional allocation of motor fuel tax funds in the amount of $404 for the city's share of improvement cost for Marvay road.

The city was advised that its allocation of motor fuel tax funds for March amounts to $18,099. Mayor said he had not signed the check for payment since Skerle had not yet signed the $1328 to Thomas Skerle for installation of a sidewalk on the construction contract with the city. "It has never come in, so I figured he must have put it in as a donation to the St. Margaret Mary parish."

Basrich offered an amendment that the mayor sue the mayor since it was the mayor who was holding up the payment. The amendment was declared to be out of order.

Whitmer commented that the city has a legal debt owed payment is in the hands of the council's supervisor.

When questioned, Mayor Part-

Amateurs' Art Show Planned May 26-28

Mrs. Ted Payne of Caseyville was named chairman of the Town and Country Art committee at a recent meeting of the group to supervise the organization of the first Madison County Town and Country Art Exhibit for amateur artists to be held May 26 to 28. The location will be named at a later date.

The committee decided to define an amateur artist as one who has not been accepted in a juried show, has sold his work successfully, has no degree in art, and whose categories for the show are adult amateur, college amateur and high school amateur. All participants must exhibit original works. The classifications make room for painting, pastels, unmounted, sculpture and ceramics. Each exhibitor may show a maximum of three works at a fee of $2 per participant.

The United States Art Association, the Town and Country Show, the Town and Country Art Show and the Cooperative Extension Service and local artists and/or artists groups.

The purpose of the Town and Country exhibition is to offer the amateur artist an opportunity to compete in a statewide exhibition. The artist who takes advantage of this opportunity offered by this competition can be making the maximum effort, continually raise his level of achievement. It may even be possible, through this means, for some seriously committed amateur artists to raise their standards to the professional level.

Sorority Chapters Plan Banquet

Gov. Otto Kerner has proclaimed April 24-30 as Beta Sigma Phi week in Illinois and six local chapters will combine in a Founder's Day banquet.

In the Rose Bowl they are XI Epsilon, XI Zeta Psi, Theta Theta, Phi Delta Lambda and Nu Zeta.

Beta Sigma Phi is a social and service organization founded in Abilene, Kan., in 1931.

The sorority is now celebrating its 36th anniversary, an occasion for Founder's Day banquets on April 30 throughout the state. There are about 7500 members in Illinois.

Practices called on by the group includes assisting Hope School in Springfield. For the past three years individual chapters throughout Illinois have contributed $10,000 toward the school for the blind, multiple handicapped children. This school is unique for its acceptance of children who are not only eligible for the blind school, but have additional handicaps.

It is the only school of its kind in the U.S. There are at present 27 children in the school which is operated on the theory that no matter how severe the case may be, there is always hope and the possibility of some progress toward normality.

It gives them care, training, and education, as well as love, friendship and acceptance.

The Kansas City International office of Beta Sigma Phi is in the process of securing a vote from its membership on whether or not to take Hope School as a project to benefit from its endowment fund. If approved it will mean that $10,000 a year will be donated to the school for a period of three years.

10 Quad-Cityans Named to EOC's Executive Committee

Ten Quad-Cityans were among 30 Madison county Economic Opportunity Commission members who were elected to the EOC's executive committee Monday evening. The action came during the county anti-poverty group's April meeting held in Edwardsburg.

Other principal items reviewed during the two-hour session included placement of four VISTA volunteers, sometimes referred to as the domestic peace corps.

In the Eagle Park area; preliminary approval of "Foster Grandparent" program, and reports from the Neighborhood Youth Corps and Legal Aid Service.

Local residents named to the EOC executive group include Harold V. Thomas, special education director for Granite City schools; Harold Fisk, Madison school board member; David Morgan, Granite City Housing Authority executive director; John Reidelberger, city councilor; Robert McCormick, Granite City AFL-CIO Community Services labor representative; Correspondent William H. Evans, and Mrs. Magnolia Jones of Venice and A. Roy Lynn of Granite City.

James M. Bailey, EOC president, explained that reorganization of the commission's executive committee will still be made due to vacancies created by members leaving the county and a federal stipulation that additional persons from poverty-stricken areas be included in local anti-poverty agency panels.

Through the program, senior citizens are employed to work in child care institutions. Participation is limited to those 60 years of age or older, whose annual income is about $1500. Due to transportation problems, the initial project primarily will concern older people residing in the Alton area.

About 10 senior citizens will be employed to man the program after approval is granted, the director said. Those employed will work 20 hours per week and receive weekly wages of $150. Harris added that city officials also have agreed to furnish employment training for those hired.

Legal Aid Service

Clayton Williams, director of the county agency's Legal Aid program, reported that three VISA volunteers are now in residence in East St. Louis with team member Miss Catherine Kwapsinski of Detroit, Mich., expected to arrive this week.

Those already assigned to Eagle Park Acres are Miss Jackie Simpson, Bob Weinberg and Harold Hamilton, who have been working in the East St. Louis area for the past three weeks.

Williams pointed out that the three volunteers are from widely-scattered points in the U.S.

Walker explained that during his assignments here, the VISA volunteers will assist Eagle Park residents in community betterment programs and work closely with members of a youth group recently organized in the unincorporated area. The volunteers also will help implement various activities connected with the Neighborhood Youth Corps.

Laclede Steel to Build New Steel Bar Rolling Mill

Harris commented that approval from state and regional OEM authorities apparently has been obtained for the initial suggestion to start such a program here was proposed by regional officials.

To the present time, he said, the Foster-Grandparent program has been confined to very large areas.

He believes the Madison county project will be the first on a smaller scale and may be intended as a pilot vehicle to determine the feasibility of the program.

New Pre-Surgical Plan To Cut Hospital Costs

A plan to reduce hospital expenses for pre-surgery patients has been proposed by the Blue Cross Plan for Hospital Care of Hospital Service Corporation. The proposal is supported by leaders of the Illinois State Medical Society, Illinois Hospital Association, the Chicago Medical Society and the Chicago Hospital Council.

The suggested plan will make hospital beds available by making it possible for a patient scheduled for an operation to have needed clinical and laboratory tests performed on an outpatient basis rather than as an inpatient prior to the operation.

Blue Cross will make facilities available for these tests under its various certificates, just as it would if the patient were having the tests as a hospital bed patient prior to surgery.

Under the plan, non-emergency surgical patients would report for tests and examinations as directed by his surgeon. Instead of being admitted as a patient as a bed patient, he simply will go to a predetermined area in the hospital, be tested, then return home or to work before entering the hospital for the operation.

Development of new techniques in pre-surgery testing has made it no longer necessary for many surgery patients to stay in hospitals to be available for pre-operative tests and examinations immediately prior to surgery.

David M. Kehler, executive director of the Illinois Hospital Association, pointed out that "soaring salaries and a rapidly expanding technology make it possible to find ways in which the brakes can be applied to rising hospital costs. The Blue Cross plan for pre-admission testing will open up one of these places by allowing shorter hospital stays in many cases, thus relieving bed shortages."

Airman David B. Click Assigned to Chanute

Airman David B. Click, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Click of 304 Dahlia avenue, has been selected for technical training at Chanute AFB, Ill., as a U.S. Air Force aircraft equipment repairman.

The airman recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Tex. His new school is part of the Air Training Command which conducts hundreds of specialized courses to provide technicians and personnel for the nation's aerospace force. Airman Click is a 1966 graduate of Granite City high school.

Man in Mishap Arrested

John J. Varga, 77, of 2907 Nameoki road, was charged with a right-of-way violation when his auto struck the left side of another vehicle on Little L. Branch, 2807 Warren avenue, at 11:45 a.m. Monday at 19th and Benton streets. Varga, who had made a stop sign on Benton, said he believed the other car also had made a stop sign.

Dinner to Honor Boy Scout Unit Leaders Here Saturday

Several hundred persons are expected to attend the 17th annual scouts appreciation dinner of the Cahokia Mound Council, Boy Scouts of America, at 6:30 p.m. Saturday at St. Elizabet Catholic Church.

Featured speaker will be Perle Winkfield, Cincinnati, O., widely-known humorist and inspirational speaker. A former deputy regional scout executive, he travels extensively to fill speaking engagements.

Also in the program Saturday evening is a large number of award winners, including recipients of two Silver Beaver awards. These awards are the highest that can be given by a Boy Scout council, and the intent of the award is to remain a secret until the announcement.

"Wonderful World of Scouting—1966" awards will be given out,

The workers will be on the streets at 6 a.m. both days, and approximately 6000 poppies have been ordered for sale throughout the Quad-City area.

Dr. Billings To Quit—if He Can Name Successor

Dr. W. W. Billings of Alton, coroner of Madison county for 27 years, has submitted his resignation to the county board of supervisors, contingent upon the board's appointment of a successor recommended by the coroner's office. Billings had denied a rumor.

In a letter to Harold Landolt, chairman of the county board, Dr. Billings said that because of his age, 73, and his state of health, he could not wish that I resign as coroner of Madison county, effective June 1, 1967. I am advising you of my decision at this time," the letter continued, "so the Board of Supervisors may appoint my successor to the May commission."

Dr. Billings "advised" the appointment of Thomas J. Burke Jr., director of an Alton funeral home, as his successor, and added that unless the county commissioners fail him, he will resign June 1 to the office.

"I hereby rescind my resignation . . . in this instance I will continue as coroner regardless of my state of health as I desire to remain in this community and serve my constituents who have served under me for many years."

The coroner informed Landolt that he has discussed the appointment with Burke and has been assured that Burke will retain the same 17 deputy coroners now serving Dr. Billings.

Honored for their contributions to the tuberculosis control movement were Dr. E. H. Theis, a local physician, and Dr. A. H. Rode, a Granite City dentist. Both have served as presidents of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association since 1936.

Currently serving as members of the local association's executive committee, both Dr. Theis and Dr. Rode were among the original founders of the anti-tuberculosis program in Madison county. Dr. Theis served as president of the Madison county group in 1945-56, while Dr. Rode held the same position in 1947.

Mrs. William Barth, county executive secretary, accepted the awards for the two local men.
